

Look at this beautiful spectrum! At the time, the third highest detection of associated HI 21-cm absorption (MNRAS 429, 3402). Also, through sensitive non-detections at high redshift, the GMRT led to the discovery of the critical UV luminosity above which all of the neutral gas is ionised (MNRAS 391, 765).

